Dr. James B. Rhoads
Archivist of the United States
General Services Administration
National Archives and Records Service
Washington, D. C. 20540

Dear Dr. Rhoads:

As you know, we are actively implementing Executive Order 11652 and National Security Council Directives governing the classification/declassification of security information. We have recently organized into a single mechanism our coordination and information control procedures, including records management, histories, and archives administration.

STATINTL

At this time I wish to advise you that, as an essential part of that administrative change, I have appointed [REDACTED] the CIA Records Administration Officer as of 1 July 1972.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] with whom you have dealt as our Records Liaison Officer since 1967, will continue in the records program and will head an expanded records management training campaign Agencywide.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] will represent our Agency on the declassification of OSS records.

SIGNED

W. F. Colby
Executive Director-Comptroller
